From the Principal

Parents, it's Spring, but snowing. Let's prepare together for ever-changing times. Please help our growth and structure by joining me on March 21, 2017, at 3:30, for our Monthly Parent Principal Coffee Chat. This will be your opportunity to asks questions, make comments, and express your concerns. Also, it is very important that you go online and complete the 5 essentials survey by Friday 17, 2017. (See letter.) Please let your voice be heard! Finally, please see the main office if your child didn't receive his or her report card. Let's continue to work together for excellence!

Yard Signs

Signs are now available for pick up in the school office. Students who take a picture with this yard sign and post it on Facebook (#stmichaelthearchangelcatholicsschool) or send it to us at stmichaelsouthshore@gmail.com will be receive a dress down day onThursday, March 16.

St. Patrick's Day Parade

Thank you to everyone who participated in this year's St. Patrick's Day Parade. All students who attended will receive a dress down day for this Thursday, March 16.

Severe Weather

If Chicago Public Schools (@ChiPubSchools) close due to weather, then we will close. There may be days that CPS stays open but we close. Please check the local news and the Emergency Closing Center (emergencyclosingcenter.com) – see the enclosed information.

Financial Aid Applications

Financial aid applications are now available to registered families. If you require assistance with completing your 2017-18 financial aid application, please contact the school to schedule your appointment or if you prefer, visit www.factsmgt.com. Appointments will be set on a first come first served basis.
